Executive Order 4902

Supreme Court Order 4901

By Order of the President, Supreme Court, Speaker of the Senate, and Elections Committee:

The Associated Students of Colorado State University hereby declares a State of Emergency considering the global Pandemic and the closure of the Colorado State University campus.

The ASCSU 2020 General Election is hereby suspended until August 31, 2020. Campaigning will resume on August 31, 2020. Whereupon there will be two and a half weeks of campaigning, just as in a normal election. Voting will take place September 14, 15, and 16.

President Amundson and the current eligible Executive administration shall remain in office until one week following the conclusion of the delayed General Election on September 23rd, 2020. All officers and officials under this Temporary Administration shall be required to be enrolled for credits during the Fall 2020 Semester at Colorado State University.

The Executive Branch shall reorganize and downsize to adjust to the web-based demands of the student body, thereby moving assets away from non-essential Departments and functions. The 2019-2020 Executive Cabinet Job Descriptions and pay structure will continue during the Temporary Administration. If necessary, the President shall appoint acting officers to fill vacant positions from current Cabinet members. Reorganization shall begin and be determined at the discretion of the President. The Temporary Administration shall be presented to the Senate by May 6, 2020. All summertime preparations shall be limited to necessary spending and must not hinder spending for the next Administration. The Temporary Administration shall officially begin on May 8, 2020, when the Constitutional term would end under normal circumstances.

Payroll for the summer and beginning of fall shall be determined and drawn from the Temporary Emergency Budget authorized by Executive Order 4901, otherwise known as the ASCSU 2020-2021 Budget. More information can be found in Joint Order 4902.

An interim Speaker of the Senate will be appointed by the current Speaker of the Senate and will remain in office until one week following the conclusion of the delayed General Election in the Fall, on September 23, 2020. Other Senate Leadership for the 50th Senate will be elected during the first session following normal procedure from then on. Payroll for Senate Leadership will be addressed in Joint Order 4902. The 50th Senate shall convene for its first session on September 23, 2020.
The Judicial Branch shall operate as normal, transferring Judicial administrations on May 6, 2020, pursuant to its normal procedure, outlined in the ASCSU Constitution.

This Joint Order is subject to change by and on the agreement of all positions signing this document.

Any alleged violation to this document, because of the declared State of Emergency shall result in an automatic Internal Complaint submitted to the Supreme Court.

Singed,
